BOMB IN THE FRENCH
CHAMBER.

Its Explosion Wounds About Twenty Deputies and Spectators.

NOBODY KILLED OUTRIGHT.

Missile Thrown from the Gallery at Almost Exactly 4 O'Clock.

THE COURAGE OF M. DUPUY.

Outrage Expected to Cause a Reaction in Government's Favor.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Dec. 9.—A bomb was exploded in the Chamber of Deputies at almost exactly 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The chamber was in session, but the proceedings being very uninteresting the galleries were not crowded with people.

Suddenly from the right gallery some sort of a bomb fell into the midst of the assembled deputies, causing a loud explosion and a scene of the greatest confusion.

The police immediately after the explosion closed all the doors of the Chamber of Deputies and refused to allow anybody to pass in or to pass out until the investigation should be concluded.

First reports had it that one of the Deputies, supposed to be Le Myre de Vilers, Socialist, and one of the attendants were killed, and that a number of others were wounded.

It subsequently transpired that De Vilers was not hurt, but that Socialist Deputy Abbe Lemire had a severe wound in the neck. He is expected to recover.

The explosion and the conflicting reports in the circulation caused the greatest excitement throughout Paris, and full details were anxiously awaited.

At 5.30 P. M. the police were still withholding details of the explosion, and were much criticised for so doing.

It was stated, however, that nobody was killed outright by the explosion.

Among the Deputies mentioned as being seriously wounded is M. Dumas, Deputy from Allier.

It is said that the bomb seemed to be filled with shot or slugs, and that when it exploded these missiles were thrown with the greatest force in all directions, reaching even as high as the galleries, where a number of spectators are said to have been wounded.

M. Berton Traubin, a newspaper man, who was on the floor of the Chamber, was badly wounded in the forehead.

At 5.40 P. M., it was announced that the police had made several arrests from among the people who were in the galleries of the Chamber at the time of the explosion.

The President of the Chamber, M. Dupuy, is reported to have behaved with the most admirable coolness and courage, and is said to have done everything possible to restore order and prevent the spread of the panic which seized upon everybody present when the explosion took place.

When it was discovered that nobody was killed outright, M. Dupuy rang his bell and called the Deputies to resume their seats.

About one-third of the number of Deputies present at the time of the explosion obeyed the summons, and when they were seated, M. Dupuy arose and said, as calmly as if nothing had happened:

Such attempts should not disconnect the Chamber.
I invite you to continue your discussions with calmness. When the Order of the Day has been dealt with, the proper officials will do their duty. (Loud and prolonged cheers.)

In the midst of indescribable emotion the discussion of the verification of the Deputies was resumed.

During this time, the wounded people had been assisted to the refreshment rooms, where they were attended to by a number of physicians.

At least a score of spectators from the galleries traversed the Salle Des Pas Perdus in order to get medical assistance.

Among the people seen to be wounded were a number of ladies who were weeping with pain and shrieking with fright.
Most of the wounds are not serious.
They are chiefly confined to the face and the upper part of the body.

The police discovered that the bomb was thrown from the third row of the second tier of the galleries. The person who threw the missile has not yet been arrested.

A Socialist named Guesde rushed into the corridors soon after the bomb had exploded, crying out that his son was in one of the tribunes, and appealing hysterically to those around him for information.
It was noticed, and strangely commented upon, that everybody avoided this man.

A spectator who was in the gallery when the bomb was thrown declares that he saw an individual beside him throw something into the Chamber. This important witness is seriously wounded in the head. He will be examined officially and at length so soon as his wound is dressed.

The outrage is attributed to those who have become inflamed by the wild utterances of the Socialist leaders.

It is believed that the fate of the Casimir-Perier Cabinet, which this morning was in the balance and likely to end in another crisis, is no longer in doubt.

In other words the explosion of the bomb is looked upon as certain to cause a reaction of sentiment in favor of the Government; that many Deputies who have hitherto been lukewarm or in moderate opposition, will now rally to the support of the Ministry, and that the latter will be kept in power for some time at least.

As the discussion was resumed in the Chamber, influenced by the superb calm of President Dupuy, the frightened spectators gradually resumed their places in the galleries.

Soon after, Premier Casimir-Perier mounted the tribune and congratulated the Chamber upon having adopted the advice of M. Dupuy, adding:

"The Chamber has done its duty, and the Government will do the same." (Loud cheering.)

An officer of the Marine Infantry, who was on the second floor of the Chamber of Deputies when the bomb was thrown, says that he believes the miscreant was tall and fair, and that he had a full beard. He adds that he thinks the bomb thrower was badly wounded in the arm, as the deadly missile undoubtedly exploded shortly after leaving the hand of the thrower.

This led people to believe that it was not a percussion cap bomb, but a bomb with a time fuse attached to it, and that the length of the fuse, or the duration of light was miscalculated, thus saving the lives of a number of people.

SPANIARDS WANT A FIGHT.

Public Not Satisfied with Prospects of Peace in Morocco.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Dec. 9.—The Daily News correspondent at Madrid says the Spanish people are so anxious that the army in Morocco shall not return to Spain without a fight with the Arabs that the greatest excitement has been created among all classes, and much concern in financial circles, by indiscreet press telegrams, revealing the plans of the Madrid Government for settling the troubles by negotiation.

The general impression here is, that Gen. Campos has taken advantage of the fact that the troops are to return to Spain to prepare to assume the offensive. It is reported that Gen. Martinez Campos has given Muley Ararat forty-eight hours to accept his ultimatum.

Hawaiian Gazette's Declaration and

All Quiet at Honolulu Up to the 24th of November.

(Copyright, 1903, Associated Press.) AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Dec. 8.—The steamer Monowai has arrived here, she left Honolulu on Nov. 24. All was quiet there at that time.

The news that President Cleveland intended to restore the Queen caused great excitement.
It was discussed by excited knots of people on the streets and was generally condemned.

A rumor was published in the Honolulu papers that the Queen was not willing to accept a restoration unless she was assured of the armed support of the United States.

The Hawaiian Gazette of Nov. 24 says:
"In the mean time the monarchy is not restored, and will not be unless by the armed forces of the United States, whose forces must then continue to support the Queen."

"There may be small differences in the ranks of the party of reform, but we are to-day more united on the main issue than ever before. Let every reformer put aside all other and minor things."

"As surely as there is an eternal justice overruling the affairs of men, so surely will the gross outrage proposed to be done to Hawaii fail of its purpose."

BAYARD ON HAWAIIAN POLICY.

Mr. Cleveland's Dealing Based on Justice and Humanity.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—A representative of the Associated Press showed to United States Ambassador Bayard to-day the special despatch to the Associated Press from Auckland. Mr. Bayard read it with great interest and then said:

"President Cleveland will deal with the weak Hawaiians in the most magnanimous manner and will not force upon them a government which they have not had a full chance to discuss."

Regarding despatches published in The Times and Standard to-day, indicating that President Cleveland is about to reverse his Hawaiian policy, and that new instructions to this effect have been sent to Hawaii, adding that the whole question would be sent to Congress, Mr.
Bayard said:

"There can be no reversal of a policy based simply upon justice and magnanimity.
President Cleveland's policy is one of non-interference; he had no intention of entering the island and deposing the Government."

"The policy of the United States towards Hawaii is not a selfish one; on the contrary, President Cleveland's intention is that 'no advantage shall be taken of the weakness of the Queen's party, and that the Queen shall have a full and fair chance to get on her feet, if possible.'"

"Hawaiian native autonomy has been so enfeebled by late events that I hardly know whether the Hawaiians can avail themselves of the offer of the President to restore the Queen to the throne."

The Associated Press representative at Liverpool has been informed that Mr.
T. H. Davis, the guardian of the Princess Kulanih, is now in Hawaii, and that the Princess is on the Continent.

The latest news received by a representative of Mr. Davis, in this country, confirms the special despatch to the Associated Press from Auckland.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Another despatch to The Standard says cholera has assumed dangerous proportions at Constantinople, and that the British Consul there, in reply to a telegram from the Turkish Government, has expressed his anxiety to the Turkish Government.

The Daily News says that the captain of a steamer, which has arrived at Plymouth from Tenerife, reports that, owing to the cholera epidemic which prevails there all visitors are leaving the island, and the natives are greatly alarmed.

TALK ABOUT THE PRESIDENT.

It Is Said He Has Submitted to Another Operation.

But Dr. Bryant and the Others Mentioned Deny It.

Rumors are flying about town that on the occasion of President Cleveland's last visit to town he had to submit to another operation on his jaw.

It is said that Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, Albert H. Buck, Robert Lewis, Jr., and Dentist K. C. Gibson were the operators.

The story goes that Dentist Gibson removed two of the President's teeth, and then Surgeons Lewis and Buck cut away a quantity of bone.

Three of the four men of medicine were interviewed by an "Evening World" reporter this morning. Dr. Lewis is ill, and could not be seen. All, however, deny that there is a word of truth in the latest story concerning the President.

Dr. Bryant said that the report was not worth the "dignity of a denial." Dr. Buck declared that the reports were absolutely without foundation, and that neither he nor Dr. Lewis ever assisted at any operation on Mr. Cleveland's jaw.

Dentist Gibson declared that he never pulled a tooth for President Cleveland, and never expects to. Neither does he administer anesthetics.

Dr. Gibson said he knew that Dr. Bryant was in Washington on Monday, but was there for the purpose of purchasing improved surgical appliances.

Dr. Bryant is Surgeon-General of this State, and an appropriation was recently made for surgical implements.

HIS RESIGNATION ASKED.

Mayor Boody Calls Excise Commissioner Schlemm Down.

Mayor Boody, of Brooklyn, has asked for the resignation of Excise Commissioner Schlemm.

This announcement was made on the best of authority at the Brooklyn City Hall this morning.

The charges against Mr. Schlemm are that after promising Mayor Boody that a license would not be given for a saloon opposite the Third National Bank in Flatbush avenue, the saloon was opened under a license.

The application for the license was made several weeks ago, at that time Col. M. T. Sprague, President of the Sprague National Bank, wrote a letter to Mayor Boody asking him not to grant the license until after hearing the protest of property-owners in the vicinity.

The Mayor promised the license would not be granted.

New York and New England Official Profess Ignorance.

The officials of the New York and New England Railroad in this city, today profess entire ignorance of anything indicating a strike occurring on that road.

It was said at President A. A. Mc-Leod's office in the Equitable Building, that the men had just been paid off according to the reduced schedule, which went into effect Sept. 1.

The employees of the road say that the Company has broken the agreement made before the reduction went into effect, and that the men are entitled to the old scale of wages which was reduced on Dec. 1. The men claim that the Company is making enough money to pay the former wages.

HEAVY FOG OVER THE BAY.

Clearing and Colder Weather Expected To-morrow.

The heavy fog which settled over the city and vicinity this morning caused considerable delay in navigation. The greatest care had to be taken to prevent accidents, and on both the East and North Rivers the fog whistles kept sounding almost continuously.

Ferry-boat schedules had to be abandoned. The fog is all along the New England coast.
There will be more rain to-morrow, gradually clearing, and colder to-morrow night.

WHOLE TRAIN OVER THE BANK.

Supposed Work of Revengeful Tramps on the Southern Pacific.

(By Associated Press.)
EL PASO, TEX., Dec. 9.—An entire Southern Pacific passenger train has gone over a high embankment at Lordsburg, New Mexico.

The disaster is supposed to be the work of tramps who were congregated in the neighborhood of Lordsburg, threatening to wreck passenger trains unless the Southern Pacific rescinded its order refusing permission to ride on freight trains.

TRAVE IN TROUBLE.

Starting Shaft Disabled As She Passed the Bar To-day.

The North-German Lloyd steamer Trave, hence for Bremen, cleared the bar at 10.30 this morning.

At 11.15 she came to anchor outside the bar and signalled that her starting shaft was out of order.

The Trave had on board $50,000 in gold. It was shipped by Heidebach, Kishelmer & Co., to the Bank of Germany at Bremen.

Shortly before noon the Trave heeled over to her anchor, as if to get under way again.

which was due here last night, as is Among her passengers were Abe Stein, senior partner of the leather firm of Abe Stein & Co., which recently "American Hercules" Dead.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Dec. 9.—"The American Hercules" died this morning from paraty-phoid fever, aged thirty-eight. He was William Sparks,

famous circus. He was a cannon-ball manipulator and general athlete.

SHE WAS TORTURED BY FIRE.

Lydia Savage Says a Hot Iron Was Thrust Into Her Mouth.

She Tells Her Story to the Judge and Shows the Scars.

Little eight-year-old Lydia Savage, a colored child who lived with Mrs. Lizzie Emerson, at 26 East Ninety-seventh street, told a story in Harlem Police Court this morning of having been punished with fire. It was made more credible by scars and blisters she showed the Justice.

Her words were listened slowly, could scarcely be understood at times, and when she was asked to talk more plainly she pointed to her blistered and swollen tongue, and said it, too, had been burned by her mistress.

Mrs. Emerson, who was a fairly intelligent-looking colored woman, denied the charges, and was held in $500 bail for trial.

She is the wife of James Emerson, a cook on the steamer Texas, of the Mallory line. Lydia Savage was born in the colored home at Sixty-fifth street and Second avenue. She was taken from the home by Mrs. McKenzie, of Jersey City, who was an aunt of Mrs.
Emerson.

Three years ago Mrs. McKenzie died, and Lydia was given in charge of Mrs.
Emerson. According to Lydia the woman had been cruel to her from the first. Last Thursday she ran away from her home. She went to a neighbor crying and said:

"I don't want to stay there any more.
Mrs. Emerson burned my hand by holding it on a red-hot stove."

At the same time she raised her right hand, and then she showed her blistered and swollen tongue, and said she was terribly swollen.

The girl told the Justice that whenever she committed any childish offense Mrs.
Emerson would punish her by burning her about the hands and body.

Turning to Lydia, said, Mrs.
Emerson charged her with having stolen bread and sugar, and then held a candle to her mouth, and burned her tongue. The little girl told her story in a sobbing voice, and her words were pointed to the ghastly burns that could be seen on her hands, arms and tongue.

After a long hearing, the Justice first learned of the case yesterday. He made an investigation and secured a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Emerson.

In court Mrs. Emerson admitted that she often punished the child. She said, however, that Lydia received the burns on her hands by falling on the stove and the burns on her tongue from hot potatoes she stole and concealed in her mouth.

Weather Forecast.

The weather forecast for the thirty-six hours ending 5 P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Cloudy weather, with rain during the latter part of the day and on Sunday morning, followed by clearing during Sunday night.

CAP. BROWN WINS Easily Gets the Feature of the Racing at Bennings Track To-day.

FIRST RACE EMMA D. COLT'S.

Fiction Takes the Third Event After a Long Delay at the Post.

RACE TRACK, BENNING, Dec. 8.— The threatening weather did not keep the crowd away from Bennings to-day.
The attendance was very large, and was reinforced by a large crowd from New York, which came down to stay over until Monday.

The track was still heavy and holding, and this caused considerable scratching.
As the fields were very large the punting did not harm the races to any appreciable extent.

The contests were exciting and the sport up to the mark.

The talent started off badly. They planned their faith to Hartford once more, and notwithstanding Sims' efforts, they could do no better than third. Emma D. Colt, a 19 to 1 chance, went to the front at flag fall and was never headed.
She won easily. After a hot finish for the place Blue Mass, also 19 to 1, got it by a head.

Brown carried the money in the second race. He did so safely, coming away in the stretch and winning easily from Factotum, a 7 to 1 chance, who was an easy second.

The finish for third place was close, Florence getting the decision. Mask was well played and went to the post second choice. He had evidently had a bad night, for he was never in the hunt.

After a long delay at the post in the third race, Fiction got away in the lead and holding it to the end won handily by two lengths.

Johnny, who came fast in the last furlong, just nipped the filly for the place by a neck.

There was some dispute after the fourth race, it being claimed that the horses got away without the drop of the flag by the starter. The result was allowed to stand, however.
